*Note: WLFL and WRDC both broadcasts and send notices asking organizations that want to be notified of current job vacancies to contact us. During this period we had one request from Durham Technical Institute to email notices instead of mailing. Also, on January 1, 2007 we added Monster.com and on January 16, 2007 we added America's Job Bank for another means of recruitment. America's Job Bank changed to Careeronestop.org effective July 1, 2007.

With a few of the following exceptions, all open positions were posted to all sources.

- a. News and Observer (Local Newspaper) is a very expensive form of advertising so we limit what we advertise through this medium. (During this period we advertised for Account Executives)
